JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 1 November 1963

STAT

TAT	met with Mr. and Mr. Robert Neal, of the Senate
	Proparedness investigating Subcommittee stall, to make a final securit review of several unresolved security deletions which, from the Subcommittee's viewpoint, warrant reconsideration. (See Mamo for the Record for details.)
АТ	Advised Boyd Crawford, Staff Directo of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, that there was no known basis for the report passed to him by Representative John S. Monagan that there was an international brigade in existence which was supplying mercenaries to the CIA.
Т	At the request of Senator Richard B.
	Russell, the Director, accompanied by Mesers. Colby. and Warner, met with Senators Russell and Saltonstall for a briefing on Africa and Viet Name. See Memo for the Record for details.
ΔT	Africa and Viet Nam. See Memo for the Record for details. Martin Cramer, Bureau of the \ T	Martin Cramer, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned in connection with the amendment made on the floor
λ Τ	Budget, telephoned in connection with the amendment made on the floor of the House to our early retirement bill requiring prior approval
ΑT	Martin Cramer, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned in connection with the amendment made on the floor of the House to our early retirement bill requiring prior approval by the Chairman and ranking Minority members of the Committees on
ΑT	Martin Cramer, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned in connection with the amendment made on the floor of the Bouse to our early retirement bill requiring prior approval by the Chairman and ranking Minority members of the Committees on Armed Services in the House and Senate. Cramer indicated the
ΑT	Martin Gramer, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned in connection with the amendment made on the floor of the House to our early retirement bill requiring prior approval by the Chairman and ranking Minority members of the Committees on Armed Services in the House and Senate. Gramer indicated the Executive Branch position on such language was sufficiently strong,
ĀΤ	Martin Gramer, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned in connection with the amendment made on the floor of the House to our early retirement bill requiring prior approval by the Chairman and ranking Minority members of the Committees on Armed Services in the House and Senate. Cramer indicated the Executive Branch position on such language was sufficiently strong, that in all likelihood if it remained, they would recommend Presidentia
ΑT	Martin Gramer, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned in connection with the amendment made on the floor of the House to our early retirement bill requiring prior approval by the Chairman and ranking Minority members of the Committees on Armed Services in the House and Senate. Cramer indicated the Executive Branch position on such language was sufficiently strong, that in all likelihood if it remained, they would recommend Presidentia veto. We then discussed possible rewording to meet congressional
\ Τ	Budget, telephoned in connection with the amendment made on the floor of the House to our early retirement bill requiring prior approval by the Chairman and ranking Minority members of the Committees on Armed Services in the House and Senate. Cramer indicated the Executive Branch position on such language was sufficiently strong, that is all likelihood if it remained, they would recommend Presidential

25X1